knew to be a black and white dog, running away. A man in one coat was following it, and I asked him if

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 6, 1 A. M.

An active boy can find employment by applying at this office.

Fletcher's spirit thermometer or: Monday night stood at three degrees below zero, and their mercureal thermometer at 2 o'clock yesterday at 19 above.

The New Orleans dispatch quotes next week $22.75 to $23. We have examined the original, which was transmitted in cipher. The rates are doublets caused by the very light stock and the closing of the upper river.

Passengers for the East, via Lexington and Cincinnati, leaving by the 6 A. M. train, the regular course of travel on the evening of same day. Those leaving by the 2 P. M. train, rest over night at Lexington. The ice bridge over the river, between Covington and Cincinnati, is safe and firm, equal to any laid.

Our handsom and obliging friend Walker, or (the Cincinnati line) will please accept our thanks for repeated favors. We are not surprised to learn that his well-known line of conveyance between the railroad depot and all other points of the city is as popular as he is himself and as both deserve to be. May he not command either to the public favor.

We are requested to state that "Life and Great Orations of Webster," which we noticed in yesterday's paper, may be had for a few days at the store of Messrs. Webb, Gill, & Levering, No. 201 Main street.

Graham House, Market street, between First and Second, was open for the reception of the traveling community, by R. H. Graham, formerly of the West Point Hotel, mouth of Soho river.

LOUISVILLE AND FRANKFORT RAILROAD.—The present management and conduct of this road is especially worthy of high praise. For the last two months the engine drivers, Northern men have opposed and threatened to halve the energy of its officers, but with the exception of an occasional brief delay, the tact of the management has uniformly triumphed over the severities of the season, and the public have passed and repassed between its terminals as safely and expeditiously and almost as pleasantly as in mid-summer. There are few lines of railroads in the country that reflect so satisfactorily accomplished and uniting a corps of managers and conductors as that of Louisville and Frankfort.

HENRY MALE SEMINARY.—We have already mentioned this institution in our columns in terms of warm commendation. It is truly located in New Castle, Henry co., Ky., and we are informed, now numbers nearly fifty pupils, with the prospect of an immediate accession of twenty-five or thirty more. Its principal, Prof. E. D. Bowes, is an experienced and accomplished teacher, whose whole heart is pro- fessional. He has a large number of able and skilled assistants. We are assured that the institution never before promised so fair a future now. Certainly in fitness and beauty of location, and in all the facilities of a refined and sterling culture, its attractions are scarcely surpassed. The next session opens on the 11th inst.

JEFFERSON AND BROWNSBURG ROAD.—We understand that on consequence of the extreme cold weather, the stockholders' meeting at Daniel Taylor's schoolhouse, which was to have been held yesterday, was adjourned to the next, the 11th instant.

Persons who are desirous of entering into the drug business would do well to notice the advertisement of "Rare Chance" in an other column.

THE STATE OF THE LOCOMOTIVE WORKS.—RESCUCTION OF OPERATIONS.—Henry Dear, Esq., the marshal of the Louisville chancery court, commenced the sale of the Locomotive Works yesterday morning, and will continue to-day and possibly to-morrow, until everything is disposed of.

The ground and extensive improvements on the old plant, machinery, were purchased by Messrs. Goss & Goss for $100,000. The ground is 600 feet on Kentucky street, and 500 feet deep. Besides these, about $36,000 worth of machinery and unfinished work were sold in parcels, which were purchased mostly by the same parties—the entire sale of the day amounting to about $60,000. There were some dozen buyers for the works.

WE are in the intention of Messrs. Isaac & Goss to take the works in operation immediately. It is a matter of congratulation to our citizens that they have fallen into such good hands. Messrs. I. & G. have for many years carried on a large foundry in this city. They have the capital, the enterprise, the capacity, and the mechanical skill to conduct so extensive an establishment successfully, and the confidence of every class of our community.

The sale will be continued this morning, commencing at 10 o'clock. Those who use machinery and tool should attend it.

WE learn verbally that the bill amending the laws of the Frankfort Railroads has passed both Houses of the Legislature at the demand of Mr. Reeder as a delegate, last evening.

BISHOP SPADING, of this city, is at New Orleans delivering lectures before the Catholic Institute.

DEATH OF J. C. FIELD.—The mobile papers announce the death of this gentleman, the manager of the theatre in that city, on the 28th ult. Mr. F. was a fine writer, and for many years manager of a theatre in St. Louis.

LOUISVILLE AND NASHVILLE RAILROAD.—It will be seen from a notice in another column that our own train, bearing a heavy load, was delayed at the front town of Herkerville, near Alis-Chapelle, in the last week of December, eight of whom, however, were not allowed to enter the Prussian territory, on account of a favoritism in favor of Cincinnati, first, and last, of the time.

COURT.—A message was received from the Governor transmitting a letter from the Free State men in Kansas relating to the alarming news of the massacre of 1856, which had been received by aid, which was being discussed, was laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Caldwell offered a preamble and resolution, and when the House adjourned, the Representatives in Congress to vote for the admission of Kansas as a free State, and for the removal of Mr. Reeder as a delegate, last evening.

THEATRE.—The Lonely Man of the Ocean and an excellent farce are performed at the theatre-to-night.

THE vote of U. S. Senator in the Mississippi Legislature was for Jefferson Davis, 50, Jacob Thompson, 37.

BISHOP SPADING, of this city, is at New Orleans delivering lectures before the Catholic Institute.

DEATH OF J. C. FIELD.—The mobile papers announce the death of this gentleman, the manager of the theatre in that city, on the 28th ult. Mr. F. was a fine writer, and for many years manager of a theatre in St. Louis.

THE following amount of produce is awaiting shipment at Mr. Carmel, Ill., on the Washab river:

Pork—33,737 lbs. Beef—40 lbs.
Wheat—1,000 lbs. Corn—500 bush.
Oats—500 lbs. Hay—300 lbs.

I am informed that about double the amount of corn reported is yet to be received.

In the case of Craft vs. the State Bank of Indiana, the sum of $15,000, paid into the 20th and 21st days of February, last year, are to be counted as one day, and a note due on the 28th, cannot be protested for non-payment, unless the bank has been advised to instruct the delegates, but remitted the speakers.

COOPERAGE, Feb. 5.—The American Council this afternoon chose Eli C. Baker, president of the Senate, and A. Richmond, delegate at large to the Senate, to represent the state, who hold their seats to the end of the session.

COOPERAGE.—We observed last Saturday at Mr. Philip Howell's store six large barrels of tanned leather, which had been directed to Gov. Morehead, of Kentucky. They were filled with Geological specimens collected by Dr. David Morris, his son, and his wife, a daughter of Prof. Kirtland. These with his admirable designs, will enable him to illustrate, to the legislature of Kentucky, his theories, and the importance of his researches, and when he has completed his tour, he will be elected to the Senate.
